PETITION CIRCULATED TO SAVE CHENG FROM GALLOWS

H.R.H. the Prince of Wales reads the lesson at Church Service on board H.M.S. "Queen Elizabeth."

PROMINENT PERSONS BEHIND MOVEMENT

TENDER AGE URGED AS REASON FOR MERCY

SON OF RESPECTED FAMILY

It is learned here to-day that a move is afoot to save Cheng Kwok-yau, condemned to death for procuring the murder of George Fung, and that a petition is in circulation and will be presented to the Executive Council when completed, urging Cheng's tender age as a reason for clemency.

No matter what legal steps are taken, whether the case goes to the Privy Council and a stay of execution is allowed or not, the petition is going forward, according to well-informed circles.

Cheng Kwok-yau is a grandson of the late Cheng Kwai, who was of such valuable assistance to the British Government during the Great War. Cheng is heir to part of the huge fortune of this Iphoh, F.M.S. family.

Prominent Support. A number of prominent and influential Chinese are understood to be supporting the petition and it was learned from some of these, who did not desire their names to be mentioned in connection with the petition for reasons of diplomacy, that sympathy for the condemned youth is strong throughout the Colony.

The private secretary to H.E. the O.A.G., Hon. Mr. W. T. Southorn, recently informed the China Mail that the matter of Cheng's stay of execution was under consideration of the Executive Council and that in due course an order will be made. The time for the decision is near, it is understood.

The stay of execution, however, is mainly a formal move in the machinery of the law, made necessary by the fact that an appeal is sought before the Privy Council. The petition for clemency has no connection with the move for a stay of execution or the appeal to the Privy Council.

MR. BALDWIN NAMED LORD PRIVY SEAL

Under-Secretaries Also Appointed.

SHUFFLE IN THE CABINET.

London, To-day. New Government appointments announced by the Prime Minister to-day, named Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin, formerly Lord President of the Council, Lord Privy Seal, succeeding to the post until recently occupied by the former Labour stalwart, Viscount Snowden.

The new office does not carry with it the same high remuneration as that of Lord President of the Council.

Mr. Leslie Hore-Belisha is appointed Financial Secretary of the Treasury; the Earl of Plymouth is Parliamentary Under-Secretary for the Colonies and Mr. R. A. Butler is Under-Secretary for the India Office.

The following appointments were announced earlier by Mr. MacDonald:

Sir John Gilmour (Conservative) as Home Secretary; Mr. Walter Elliot (Conservative) as Minister of Agriculture and Sir Geoffrey Collins (Liberal) as Secretary for Scotland.

300 DEAD AND 1,000 INJURED IN EARTHQUAKE

Fresh Shocks Felt At Chalcidice.

BRITISH RESCUERS.

Athens, To-day. Although the complete list of the earthquake casualties is not yet available owing to many being pinned beneath the ruins without hope of rescue, 300 people are known to be dead and 1,000 injured. Three thousand people are homeless.

British sailors continue to demolish buildings, and many bodies have already been recovered. Three more violent shocks have been felt at Chalcidice, and one at Salonika, where many of the most important buildings have been fissured. Athenian society ladies are hastening to the devastated region to work as nurses.

Survivors relate that domestic animals had a premonition of the disaster several hours in advance, and were panic-stricken as they made frenzied attempts to escape from the houses. The monks of the Mount Athos Monastery are prevented from joining in the rescue work, as they are cut off from the rest of the peninsula by mighty crevasses from which issue a sulphurous odour. — Reuter.

DEATH OF PREMIER SCOTTISH EARL

Earl Of Mar Passes At Age Of 67.

HON. COL. ARGYLLS.

London, To-day. The death has occurred of Earl of Mar, Premier Viscount and Baron of Scotland, at the age of 67 years. — Reuter.

Walter John Francis Erskine, K.T., J.P., 12th Earl of Mar and Kellie, was born in 1865, the eldest son of the 11th Earl. He was the hereditary Keeper of Stirling Castle, and Hon. Colonel 7th Battalion Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders. He was also representative Peer for Scotland since 1892; Lord Lieutenant of the County of Clackmannan since 1898, Chairman of the Clackmannan County Council and President of the County Territorial Association.

Earl Mar was educated at Eton and was a Lieutenant in the Scots Guards from 1897 to 1892. His son and heir is Lord Ernle.

CHRISTMAS DAY BROADCAST.

Costly Station At Daventry.

London, To-day. It is expected that the first broadcast from the New Empire Short Wave Station being constructed at Daventry by the British Broadcasting Corporation will take place on Christmas Day when an effort will be made to transmit part of the home programme round the world.

The station will begin its tests in a few weeks but the complete service will not be established until next year.

The decision to construct a wireless station for broadcasting throughout the Empire was made known last month, and the station, estimated to cost £100,000 and to employ 400 men, is now being built. — Reuter.

COMMUNIST PLOT BARED BY SHANGHAI RAID.

Plan To Stir Chekiang To Uprising Discovered.

[From Our Own Correspondent.] Shanghai, To-day.

Seizure of important documents here have led to the discovery of a Communist plot to instigate an uprising in the neighbouring province of Chekiang.

The documents were seized by Municipal Police who arrested two suspected Communists, who are believed to be important members of the Military Committee of the Central Communist Party.

LEGAL FIGHT LIKELY OVER PRIZE SWEEP

Second Winner Claims First Money.

HORSE DISQUALIFIED.

A dispute over the allotment of the premier prize in the South China Athletic Association Sweepstake on the Junk Bay Handicap, run last Saturday, is said to be pending. In view of this, the distribution of the prize money has been postponed indefinitely.

It is understood that the Association has received a letter from the holder of Ticket No. 01823, which drew Wonderful Stag, demanding the first prize of $109,832. The holder of Ticket No. 08649, which drew Champagne Bay, the disqualified winner, has been notified, and the Association has put the matter in the hands of Mr. M. K. Lo, the Association's legal adviser.

It is further learned that the dispute unless settled amicably will be settled by law. (Continued on Page 12.)

CIVIL WAR THREAT IN SZECHUAN.

Militarists Disagree

Nanking, To-day. Civil war is brewing in Szechuan as a result of animosity between the provincial militarists, according to private messages received to-day.

The recent representatives of the Szechuan Government met in Nanking to discuss the situation in the province, and it is believed that the meeting will result in a declaration of civil war.

BUTLER THROWN AT VALLEY

Westland Stag Proves Troublesome.

NOT SERIOUSLY HURT.

Billy Hill Passes Through On Conte Rosso.

Mr. E. O. Butler, one of the most promising of the younger jockeys, experienced a nasty fall yesterday morning during the training gallops. Mr. Butler was riding Westland Stag, a pony which Mr. L. G. Frost has had under his own special attention, when he was thrown during a gallop. Fortunately, however, Mr. Butler was not seriously injured, suffering only from a severe shaking.

Westland Stag has always been a difficult pony to handle, and apparently the special training it has had under the champion jockey has not eradicated its old faults.

SHANGHAI JOCKEY ARRIVES

Mr. William Hill, the well-known Shanghai jockey, who won the Derby and the Champions during the Annual Meeting at the Valley, was an interested spectator at the early morning gallops at the Valley this morning.

Mr. Hill is just returning from home and left for Shanghai on the Conte Rosso at noon to-day.

Mr. Hill brought Liberty Bay home by two lengths to win the Derby from Wild Life with T. Y. Tung up. Liberty Bay was then such a hot favourite that it paid only $6.20 for a win and $8.10 for a place.

In the Champions Mr. Hill won on Diana Bay, three lengths separating his mount from Gay Crusader with Johnny Heard up. Diana Bay was also a red-hot favourite, paying out only $6.00 and $5.40.

During the Annual Meeting Mr. Hill rode in thirteen races, winning eight, being placed second once, and running unplaced on four occasions.

MARTIAL LAW AT CANTON ON NATIONAL DAY

Precutions Taken To Prevent Disorder.

MASSACRE RECALLED.

[From Our Own Correspondent.] Canton, To-day. Martial Law will be declared on October 10, by the Canton Government, following on the announcement that all observances of Chinese National Day have been banned by the Nanking Government.

This step has been taken as a result of the participation of a mass meeting of the Students Anti-Japanese Association, which it is stated has planned to hold an Anniversary gathering to mark the Wung Ho. Mr. Ma, however, in addition to the fact that the celebration of National Day is a reminder of the massacre of the Chinese at Nanking, the Government is also concerned over the possibility of a riot.

ITALIAN LINER IN TROUBLE ON MAIDEN VOYAGE

Huge Vessel Delayed At Gibraltar.

ACCIDENT IS SECRET.

London, To-day. The luxury liner "Rex," Italy's largest and newest ship, which left Genoa on Tuesday on her maiden trip to New York, may possibly still be at Gibraltar on October 2, the date she is due at New York.

A "hush-hush" policy has concealed effectually the defects which caused her to arrive at Gibraltar three hours late but it is rumoured her turbines and dynamos need attention.

Not a word of the accident is published in any of the Rome newspapers.

Gibraltar reports say passengers, who include the United States Ambassador to Rome, Ex-Mayor Jimmy Walker of New York, are now allowed ashore while squads of dockyard hands are working all night long on the ship's turbines.

She appeared to have been speeding at 25 knots till two hours out of Gibraltar when a defect caused her to slow down to ten knots. On her trials her average speed was 29 knots per hour. — Reuter.

NEW LORD MAYOR OF LONDON.

Sir Percy Greenaway Is Elevated.

London, To-day. At the Guildhall, London, to-day, liverymen of the city chose Sir Percy Greenaway to be the next Lord Mayor. Sir Percy is head of the City Firm of Daniel Greenaway, bankers and general printers. — British Wireless Service.

STOCKPORT COUNTY SURPRISED.

Carlisle's Home Win.

London, To-day. Carlisle United advanced five places in the Third Division (North) table as the result of a home victory over Stockport County by 2 goals to 1. The home side, however, were surprised throughout the match by the game tactics of the visitors. — Reuter.

BIG COMPANIES HAVE ROYAL TRAIN EACH.

King And Household
Pay Like Others.

QUEEN SHOWS TASTE.

All four of the big British railway companies keep a Royal train, and the one which takes the King and Queen to Balmoral, costs 18s 4d a mile to run, in addition to first class fares for every member of the Royal Party. The King never travels free of charge on the railways, and his expenses in this respect are paid out of the Privy Purse.

Both the Royal coaches on this train were built for King Edward and Queen Alexandra as Queen Victoria's saloon had then become out-of-date with its mid-Victorian decorations. The saloons have gilded cornices carved with an oak leaf design; the door handles are gold plated, with a crown, and the Royal Coat of Arms is on the lower panels.

Colour Schemes.

The Queen is responsible for some of the colour schemes in the sitting-rooms. Some of the furniture in the day room is covered with green silk rep by special request of Her Majesty, and the rest is covered in a copy of Jacobean tapestry which she specially selected.

In the King's day compartment is a relic of King Edward. After the late King had broken his ankle a couch, one end of which let down, was made for him. This still remains and is used by the Queen on long journeys. In the same room is a desk where the King can attend to State affairs.

His Majesty's bedroom, which leads off this room, is in satin-wood, with a silver-plated bed. The next compartment is a bathroom, which was installed during the war when the King and Queen lived on the train a week at a time, inspecting war activities.

The Queen's Saloon.

The Queen's saloon is in blue, Her Majesty's favourite colour. Here there are two of everything, balanced on opposite sides, the reason being that the saloon was designed for Queen Alexandra, who always had Princess Victoria for a travelling companion.

Both saloons have white walls decorated in Georgian style. This gives a yacht-like effect, which was what King Edward wanted.

A large railway staff is always carried, in case of accidents, and this includes two telegraphists who can communicate with the nearest signal-box through the telegraph wires by the side of the line.

Buckingham Palace.

Buckingham Palace, like many lesser homes, shows signs of the times in the holiday season. Holland covers envelop the Twin Thrones in the Ball-room, the great electroluxes in the State Apartments are enclosed in their dust proof brown bags, and dust-sheets are everywhere; while a certain amount of "spring" cleaning is done while the King and Queen are away in the North.

Before Their Majesties went to Cowes this year, the advance guard of servants left for Scotland in order to put everything straight for the arrival of the King and Queen at the end of August.

The staff remaining at the Palace is placed on board wages during the holiday season.

An example of the Queen's thoughtfulness for others, by the way, is the fact that she has arranged for all the Household cars at Buckingham Palace to be equipped with special draught-proof ventilators of the same type as were fitted to the King's own car after he had caught a chill when driving with the window down last year.

The Household Cars, which are painted in the Royal colours, are used by members of the Royal entourage on official journeys. They can, however, be distinguished from the Royal motors, since they bear ordinary number plates, which the cars used by the Royal family do not.

SHORT JACKETS.

Another new fashion trick that should appeal to the economical woman is the dress with two short jackets. A dress, let us say, of dark silk or sheer wool, with a short jacket to match for humdrum everyday occupations, with a second jacket made of bright coloured silk, velvet or metallic cloth that may be worn when the dress is to serve for a more important occasion.

Hat Ornaments To The Front

Low—Brow Hats Are Fashionable.

NEW FABRIC FOR MADAME.

Hats are going to give us lots to think about from now on. Marked new tendencies are already noticeable in them. Crowns, for instance, are being lowered in a very jaunty fashion.

The naked brow is apparently to be discontinued this Autumn, and midsummer is preparing us for what is to come. The crown, making its descent, by slow stages, is being ornamented in the front by

Fruit Salad

Although their season is swiftly passing peaches and luscious pears from other parts of China are still to be had in the local markets. These, combined with the bananas and pineapples which are almost constantly with us, supply material enough for a salad composed entirely of fresh fruit.

Melon flesh cubed always adds to the variety and if a little maraschino is used as flavouring both directly on the fruit and to flavour the whipped cream the salad acquires a piquancy hard to equal.

When serving fruit salads use individual dishes as they are much easier to serve in attractive form and each person receives his salad intact, not disarranged by previous partakers.

Stuffed Fish Rolls.

Select sole of uniform size, large enough to make two strips about 2½ inches wide on each side, each fish giving four fillets. Place on them a little veal stuffing, chopped bacon or some chopped shrimp (according to taste) roll up neatly, fasten with a toothpick at each end, place on a greased tin, squeeze lemon juice over, and bake from 15 to 20 minutes. Make a rich white sauce, pour over the rolls, garnish with coralline pepper and chopped parsley. If the fish is stuffed with shrimp pour a shrimp sauce over.

Clam Soup.

Scrub the unopened clam shells with a brush in clean water and place them in a saucepan; pour in 2 tablespoons of warm water and steam till the shells open. Strain off the liquor and add to it a cup of hot milk; thicken with butter and flour. Chop the clams in small pieces and return to the soup; season with pepper, no salt required as the clam juice is salty. Roll up and add a little whipped cream.

Carrots and Turnips.

Cook the carrots and turnips, and cut them in fancy (star and dice) shapes, mix them with a can of green peas, fresh ones being unobtainable at present. Just before serving pour the following sauce over them: Roll a tablespoon of flour in an ounce of butter and stir into half a pint of chicken stock; simmer for ten minutes. When cooled stir in a little cream or milk, the beaten yolk of an egg and stir well. Add a little lemon juice, make hot and serve.

little bows or feather-fancies that lightly caress the forehead over the right eye, coming flirtatiously near the eyebrow.

Coquetry Ahead.

Imagine yourself with a tiny (these hats are still diminutive) black felt, really only a cuplike crown with a glove-like fit, rolling slightly at the edge, tipped well to the right and having a feather ornament in the front whose colour vies with that of an American beauty for brilliance, and you will have some idea of the way you ought to look if fashionable.

Another smart model is a velvet hat in ruby red. Ruby tones, let it be said, are at the moment the most discussed in millinery circles. Along with coral, magenta, raisin, plum and puce, they will storm fashion's Autumn stronghold. It is said that ruby, American beauty and coral will be combined with blue and black in hats. At any rate, we found ruby red enchanting when we saw this in that sprightly hat; it might be called Parlatrice, for its two bows standing out on either side give it a winged look.

Two Fabrics.

But here is the most interesting of all millinery news. Two fabrics have made their appearance on the market in which wool and crepe are combined with elastic. This means that they stretch—the wool two ways—so that hats of an average size will fit almost any head. No longer will the woman with a large head-size be obliged to wail: "I cannot get anything to fit!" Hats made of these materials settle on any brow, and, what is more, they stay put. The fabrics are good to look upon. The wool has a pleasantly rough surface, the crepe the much liked crinkly look.

Lacquered Feathers.

Brimless hats promise to be great fun. In addition to those already mentioned, we have seen them made of feathers, but feathers used in a 1932 way. There is the ostrich plume, with each tiny wisp laid by its neighbour so that the result looks like chenille, carefully molded to the crown; there are dog feathers pasted until they look like a helmet; and feathers lacquered to resemble a wig. For once, women will be able to imagine themselves Titian blondes or brunettes without having to resort to the arts of an expert on dyes!

Nor is the sailor to be banished. In its Autumn interpretation it will go further afield, for inspiration than it did this Spring. The most original seen so far is the "cure sailor." The name speaks for itself; it conjures up the picture of a young priest in a faraway French village.

In so far as can be judged at the present writing felt hats are going to be widely used for early Autumn hats—soft and pliable felts that lend themselves easily to the manipulation required for the subtle shapes in vogue.

"MERRILY WE GO TO HELL"
HAS GRAND DRAMA

WALTER HUSTON'S VERSATILITY IN
"HOUSE DIVIDED."

M. G. M. Comedy Week At Queen's

In "Sinners in the Sun" we have a magnificent production in the best Paramount manner directed by Dorothy Arzner, with a cast that thrills. Lovely Carole Lombard, Chester Morris, Adrienne Ames,
Cary Grant, Alison Skipworth, Walter Byron and Rita la Roy, to mention a few. A story that has been told often, with a few tears from the heroine, and self-reproaches from the hero, with a final fade-out of the lovers deciding —(after they have tried everything once) the love is the only thing that matters. I like the artists, the acting and the sumptuousness of the show. How that Lombard girl can wear her gowns too. Nice to see how the rich live, even if one can't actually share in it. Worth seeing.
(King's).

"House Divided."

In "House Divided," Walter
Huston gives a versatile performance.
This drama of folk in the Northwest fishing village is intensely interesting. Kent Douglas is natural and good, Helen Chandler does her best with limited possibilities.
Strongly advised. This is following by "June Moon," Jack Oakie, giving an excuse for many laughs. Ring Lardner's witty lines helping him and a capable cast including Frances Dee, Wynne Gibson, June McLoe
and Harry Akst. Highly amusing story of Tin-pan Alley, with its sentiment and its hardness. A film to be seen. Thomas Meighan, Bill Bakewell and Charlotte Greenwood
in the second showing of "Cheaters at Play." Quite good. Don't miss
"Over the Hill," Mae Marsh, Sally Eilers and James Dunn. All due at the Oriental.

"Tell England," British production.
Advised. Followed by Winnie
Lightner, Joe E. Brown and Georges
Carpentier in "Hold Everything."
Due at the Star.

"Splinters in the Navy."

In "Splinters in the Navy," we have Sydney Howard stealing the show from the original Concert Party that made history in the Great War. Again we have Reg.
Stone as the female impersonator,
Lew Lake leading the party; Wilfred Temple singing delightfully.
There is little story, but the boxing bout, music, amusing situations and Howard, give a highly diverting evening. Howard is a Yorkshire-man. Started theatrical life in a sea-side Pierrot show. Went all through the War and then started at the bottom of the ladder again.
Given a chance to understudy Harry Tare. Scored in "Hit the Deck." Is on the way to being one of the funniest comedians on the screen.
Married to the same wife for over twenty years. She has shared his struggles and poverty, and now shares in his enormous success.
Anything this funny fellow does is good, even if there is a monotony to his style. (Queen's).

"Merrily We Go to Hell"

In "Merrily we go to Hell" we have the co-stars Fredric March and Sylvia Sydney giving us grand work. In fact, I am converted to the Sydney girl's many attractions.
Now she is not pretty, but is a finished actress and a humanely appealing. March? He is always perfection. As the clever half-drunk reporter who is trying to forget a love affair, and whose wife knows it and tries to "merrily go to Hell"
with him, when the pretty actress returns to his life, we have a story that holds you from start to finish.
Although, mark you, with a kickbustance you might think it overdone. (Natural dear little girl who tries to get to conform to the new fashionable thing, and who is a good hearted little girl. All right.)

will welcome the Paramount British production, with Gertrude Lawrence, Owen Nares, Harold Huth, Hugh Wakenfield, Emily Fitzroy, (remembered in American films) and others. It is first-class fare for those who prefer humour seasoned with sophistication. More of this later. Due at King's.

"Million Dollar Legs."

In "Million Dollar Legs," we have a mythical kingdom called Klopstockia, of which the old vaudevillian juggler, W. C. Fields, is the President. Jack Oakie a live-wire American comes along to recruit a team of athletes for the Olympic Games. Lyda Roberti the long-legged tow-haired Polish girl from the Carlton Cafe in Shanghai is Mata Machree's female spy, and gives a fine burlesque of a famous Swedish star. I hear that Eddie Cantor predicts stardom for this comparatively new-comer, and he has given her splendid chances in his newest picture, "The Kid from Spain." This girl alone is worth seeing, because she is a natural born comediienne. Then, who wants anyone more amusing than the big favourite Oakie?—Plenty of laughs,
if you like this type of play, and it has started the craze for stories about the Olympic athletes. See it for yourself. (King's).

Coming to the Queen's, Clark Gable, Wallace Beery, Dorothy Jo-dan, Conrad Nagel, John Miljan and a huge cast. Direction above the average. "Hell's Diver" gives us excellent entertainment. Also Buster Keaton, Jimmy Durante and Irene Purcell in "The Passionate Plumber." Two grand films, highly recommended.

Comedy Week.

Queen's promises a week of worthwhile comedies. All M.G.M. releases.
Sports special, "Sharks and Swordfish." A News Reel of the Olympic Games, then a Colour Revue with music—"Mexicans." "Chickens Come Home" with Mr. Laurel and his friend Mr. Hardy, to finish with Charlie Chase in "One of the Smiths." This programme will surely delight the patrons and pack
the Queen's.

"Congorilla"

If you are not bored seeing Darkest Africa, you will like the real thing—"Congorilla" the cinematic adventures of the intrepid adventures Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson. Real animal "shots" and pygmies that steal the show. Also a charming human story with a Star
we see too seldom—Warner Baxter with him we have that adorable Marion Nixon in "Amateur Daddy."
This is especially recommended for the children. At last, shortly, Tallulah Bankhead and Fredrick
March in strong drama, "My Sin."
Grand line-up, coming to the King's.

man has signed to R.K.O. He was the original of "The Man in Poses-sion" on Broadway, and is now the star in a musical comedy. Said to be equally clever in comedy or drama.

William Beaudine, the well-known director, is considering an offer from London.

Clive Brook has resigned from "Lives of a Bengal Lancer," as he says he did not wish to share acting honours with a herd of elephants.
Fredric March and Gary Cooper
will be featured. Talking of sharing honours with animals. I hope you noticed the many mistakes in "Tarzan."

Also, I wish to contradict the statement that Aubrey Smith was the original Trader Horn. In the fierce fight our hero had with lion and lioness, although you could see the animals claw his body, they did not even leave a scratch. The only wound the absurd heroine had to mop up with a morsel of dress, was the bullet wound. The Dunning process was used to marvellous advantage, but anyone in the "Know" could see it was all taken on a

"Back lot" with an artificial jungle, zoo animals, Bud Barsky's trained monkeys, and painfully apparent trapezes.

Despite all this, M.G.M. have decided that in their next "Tarzan" series of three stories they will send the company to Africa. This time the animals will be genuinely wild, anything for realism. Johnnie Weissmuller was to do
"Nanook," but now will continue being the Ape gentleman. I do hope he finds another wife. If we have to hear the monotonous voice of Miss O'Sullivan again, and see her attempts at insane acting,
not even realism could get me to sit it out. I hear that Director Van Dyke is "that way" about Miss Maureen, which accounts for the good breaks which come this lucky girl's way.

Harold Huth is to play a new version of "Raffles." He is seen accompanying that lovely Joan Barry places. You remember them together in "The Outlander."

M.G.M. have bought Iver Novello's newest play "Party." Baby Peggy is coming back, and Mary Pickford is taking this pretty girl, who is now fifteen years old,

for her new picture.

Although Harold Lloyd's newest film "Movie Crazy" is voted his best,
he says he may retire, and devote himself to producing comedies for his protégé, Eddie Gribbon. Lucky Eddie.

Clifford Grey who used to write the lyrics for "Chevalier" is now a most successful scenario writer, and his latest "Rome Express," in London, they say will be far better than "Shanghai Express."

George Brent, husband of Ruth Chaverton, was married for one month, about ten years ago. Among the many eligible bachelors in Hollywood will be found the names of Ronald Colman (divorced), Paul Cavanagh, Walter Byron, James
Dunn, Bill Bakewell, Bill Haines,
Joel McCrea, Ramon Novarro,
Edward Horton, George O'Brien (who looks like marrying Marguerite Churchill).

The new Gaumont Studios in Shepherd's Bush, which cost $500-000 are among the finest in the world.

The Collective Impulse.

Mass suggestion has endless possibilities. To prophesy their course lies beyond known rules. The latest example of this is literally a pedestrian one. Until recently, men and women were content merely to walk, and to take at the most a few close friends with them. Then, suddenly, someone introduced the American word "hike," and to-day people are taking to the road in their thousands, with more than a semblance of ostentation. No doubt the craze will pass, like so many others before it—"minnie" golf, for instance, which withered away as swiftly as it arose. For the moment, however, "hiking" reveals the crowd habit, the copying instinct, in perfect form. Perhaps the old grammar books did some thing to make these things easier. Nor satisfied merely with "I love" and "thou lovest," they invariably went on through "he," "we," and "you" to the grand climax of "they love." Thus were minds prepared, once given "I hike" as a starting-point, to proceed by swift stages to the universal conclusion of "they hike." One more reminder of the rule that "everybody's doing it." In cruder form this urge expresses itself in the coercive cry, beloved of political rowdies at meetings of their opponents, "One out, all out!" How complete the submission which that cry usually compels! Individual preferences are anathema to every demagogue, and mass production according to the Moscow school includes mentalities as well as machines. In freer lands the process has not yet been standardised and proclaimed. Its workings, noted only by the few, are in the main neither realised nor avowed. But, just below the surface, the inclination to "follow my leader" is constantly felt and obeyed. It shows itself in every department of life. Many of those who persistently decry what they call the conventions, are conspicuously enslaved to the momentary moods of the multitude. Except for a small minority of systematic students, people act and think in droves. The fashions, conquering and supreme, are not confined to our clothes. Books which happen (no one quite knows how) to achieve a "boom," are read in kind of panic, and then as a rule, quickly forgotten. This sure contingency does not deter the imitators who exploit the last success up to and beyond its extinction. It is the same with the artistic and scientific movements and the religious and political sects. The masses are not only led, they are also led.

for our melodies and Assyria for our statues. Why it should be so, nobody can tell us, any more than we can learn what causes women to change their minds about their change of hats. As for the cinema, most popular of all public diversions, it is unfailingly to be found, at any given moment, presenting in a dozen different ways the theme which has once caught the ear of the public. The old "Girl" cycle of musical comedy was not more stoutly maintained than are to-day the screen's favourite topics. If Vienna once proves a profitable rallying-ground for festive songsters, then to Vienna we may expect to be summoned, again and again. The one thing which, amid changing scenes and settings seems to be considered itself unchanging is Sex, writ large. By strident placard and by gross pictorial advertisements the absurd suggestion is sought to be conveyed that life consists solely of amorous embraces, mostly lawless. True, the result never equals the daring promise; in fact, the majority of such shows could be reasonably prosecuted for obtaining money under false pretences. But at least the aim of the massed appeal is clear. Some weeks ago a flock of over a hundred sheep jumped, one after the other, down a sheer Swiss precipice, and all were killed. Scripture had already pointed the human parallel. At the same time, it need not be entirely forgotten that sheep follow, with equal ease, a leader who guides to safety. The top facile popular response can have its good side as well as its bad. Like everything else, it depends on the end attained. Waves of thought sweep the world, and the thing that matters is whether those waves be short or long, transient or sustained. It is leadership of the right sort which, seizing on malleable mankind as its predestined instrument, has brought about the great revivals in morals and in art. If we feel at times that blind leaders of the blind are more constant in their work and appear to win easier victories, it consoles us to remember that the rarer effort which uplifts and ennobles is when it comes, the more lasting. "We need must love the highest when we see it" is not altogether a poet's empty hope. Again and again the race has shown itself capable, for the sake of a great ideal, loftily set forth, of sacrificing comfort and material gain. The Savonarolas do not last, says your cynic. Perhaps not, but they have their share of glory, though the line is often broken. There is, surely, sense in Carlyle's dictum: "Surely of all rights of man, the right of the ignorant man to be guided by the wise, is the true one." It is the duty of the leaders to guide, and the duty of the masses to follow.

Correspondence.

GOVERNOR'S BUNGALOW.

(To the Editor, "China Mail.")

Sir—I was intrigued and amused by Correspondents to the Press taking exception to the New gubernatorial Residences. Surely as the Colony saved over a million dollars at the expense of public servants it is rather ungracious to take exception to the making of at least one public servant more comfortable out of part of these savings.

By time-hallowed custom one of the new residences will, I presume, be called "Bankruptcy Building" and doubtless an appropriate name will be found for the others.

Perhaps we might have a competition?

POST IN NEW ZEALAND.

The Rev. L. Neville Watkins and Mrs. Watkins, were the guests at a farewell social tendered them in St. John's Cathedral Hall yesterday afternoon. Mr. Watkins who has been Priest-in-Charge of St. Peter's Church for the past three years, is leaving with his wife and child for New Zealand to-morrow. He is taking up an appointment in the Diocese of Christ Church.

Mr. Watkins made a strong appeal for better co-operation among the British residents of the Colony, and regretted the spirit of intolerance sometimes found in Hong Kong. He referred to his connection with the Anzac Company of the Hong Kong Volunteer Defence Corps and said that he often felt that there was not sufficient rapprochement among the Britons here.

After tea had been served, the Very Rev. Dean A. Swann, D.S.C., addressing the gathering, presented a warm tribute to the work done by Mr. Watkins, and spoke in eulogistic terms of his connections with the Cathedral and other Church organisations.

News in Brief.

One case of enteric fever was notified to the Health Authorities on Wednesday.

The Consulado de Nicaragua have removed their offices from Tai Ping Building, third floor, to Wing Lock Building, 11 Lock Road, first floor, Kowloon.

Mr. Fan Chi-mo, the former Commissioner of Canton, will be leaving for his new post as Finance Commissioner of Fukien Province this afternoon on the s.s. Hai Ning. He is due to take office to-morrow.

Li Chi-ming, an ex-student, was sentenced to six months' hard labour by Mr. H. R. Butters at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning on charges of the theft of jewelry from Mrs. F. H. Loseby, Chatham Road and from Miss Jacquina Fernandez of Nathan Road.

To-night is the eve of the Jewish New Year, and the Passover Festival will be observed by the Jewish community from sunset, 6.30 p.m. In celebration of New Year's day to-morrow, the Jewish community are holding a reception at the Jewish Recreation Club, 70, Robinson Road, commencing at 6.30 p.m.

Personal Pars.

Major and Mrs. J. H. Mousley were among the arrivals from Japan per the s.s. Nankin, which arrived in port yesterday.

Lady Mary Barton, the local artist, returned to the Colony yesterday, from Yokohama, aboard the E. & A. steamer Nankin. Lady Mary was accompanied by her daughter, Miss S. Barton.

BRAZILIANS SEEK NEW PEACE.

Rio de Janeiro, Sept. 29.—The Brazilian Government has received a letter from the German Government, dated Sept. 27, in which the latter offers to negotiate a new peace treaty with Brazil, provided that the Brazilian Government will agree to a new peace treaty with Germany.

Better Understanding With Britain

FINANCE CRISIS AHEAD?

The Englishman visiting France to-day cannot help noting with satisfaction the excellent effect a better understanding with Great Britain has in that country.

Opinion is viewing with far greater serenity than would have been possible a few months ago a situation which in itself cannot but be regarded as grave.

Quite apart from the fact that a serious financial crisis in France is anticipated this winter, the known difficulties of several southern European countries add to the gloom. What will happen when these countries apply to their usual sources of credit and find their demands refused, as they undoubtedly and inevitably will be, is hard to say.

But preoccupations of this nature pale into insignificance in France when compared with the forward anxiety caused by events in Germany which Germany is very naturally so seriously concerned about.

Gen. von Schleicher's speech and danger that the flush brought to the cheek of Europe by Lausanne may turn out, after all, to have been a feverish symptom rather than the colour of returning health.

Germany's well-wishers in this country—and there are none who developed into a conviction, for wish her ill here—cannot but share to some extent at least the disquietude of the French. The broad hints conveyed in some quarters when Germany was admitted to the League of Nations this meant that she must ultimately be allowed to stand on a footing of absolute equality with her co-members. But the dawn of that happy day must obviously depend largely upon when somewhat disingenuous suggestions France feels safe enough to forgo to one at least of her neighbours of the restrictions imposed upon Germany by the Treaty of Versailles.

But to return to France. The nothing has happened since the Frenchman reading his daily paper of concessions to Germany has been notes with disquiet the murderous entered upon to increase France's zest with which political parties sense of security.

Germany is entitled to expect He reflects that people who think so little of a score or so of killed as would on the price of an afternoon's pro-entire upon the full rights of a menace behind a flag are likely to citizen. That Minister has done more than a tremor down the spine of a doubtedly the Polish Corridor, worried bourgeoisie; he has caused which divides East Prussia from the real anxiety amongst thinking and influential Frenchmen, and discourtaged those who were prepared to follow up the success of the Lau-Conférence by further efforts their country, should to satisfy in the future those of have to cross foreign territory and Germany's claims which can be classified as legitimate examinations.

This is all the more unfortunate because Herr von Papen and his Government made a far better impression at Lausanne than many had entitled to have access to the sea, thought possible. The urbanity and, in spite of what Germany may good manners of the German Chancellor, the Corridor is and has been cello and of his collaborators im-populated by a Polish majority for pressed favourably those who came centuries.

But it is not a sacrifice which would be made by the French, for the Corridor is a part of the French territory, and the French Government would not be able to give it up without the consent of the French people. The French Government would not be able to give it up without the consent of the French people.

GITTENS WINS THE 100 YARDS.

Lawrence Beaten By 1/5 Of A Second.

ROZA-PEREIRA'S EASY WIN.

J. de Sousa Wins From Athletic Entrant.

A large crowd attended the 2nd day of the Annual Swimming Championships held at the Victoria Recreation Club yesterday afternoon.

Gittens after equalling his own record of 61 seconds set in 1930, in Wednesday's heats, clipped 2.5 of a second from that record in yesterday's Final. He has yet, however, to clip 1-2 5 seconds from his present time to equal the Colony record of 59-1/5 by J. R. Johnstone in 1929.

Only two contestants competed in the "D" Class Aggregate 150 Yards V.R.C. event. A. N. da Silva swam a splendid race, but pulling up in the final stages he lost to M. M. de V. Soares by less than a yard, after having been handicapped five.

Although J. de Sousa's time in yesterday's Final of the Boys' Championship was not as good as Wednesday's, he won with ease, taking the lead in the third lap and holding it until the finish.

L. Roza Pereira won the 100 Yards Backstroke by fully half a length in the splendid time of 74-1/5 seconds. He has still, however, to diminish this time by 2-1/5 to equal the record of Wong Siang-hing of 71-2/5 in 1929. It was a great disappointment that the University student was unable to defend his record this year.

The under-water heats all provided close finishes. E. B. da Roza, who was the favourite in the third heat broke the surface in mid-pool and was disqualified. He would certainly have returned a good time.

A WATCHMAN ON MURDER CHARGE

Gun Duel Over Woman Is Recalled.

District Watchman 99, Siu Kon-chiu, appeared in the Central Police Court yesterday charged with the wilful murder of District Watchman 60, Lai Chuen.

The accused was not legally represented.

In his opening of the Crown case, Mr. Fraser, Assistant Crown Attorney described the gun duel which occurred in a sloping street outside the No. 7 Police Station, at about 11 p.m. on the 24th inst., when the bodies of the two watchmen were found.

The Crown case against the accused was supported by the evidence of the two witnesses who were present at the scene of the crime.

Cricket Club Year Under Review

Mr. Justice Wood At Annual Meeting

THANKS TO GOVERNMENT

Presiding at the 28th annual meeting of the Hong Kong Civil Service Cricket Club in the new Pavilion at Happy Valley yesterday evening, His Honour, Mr. J. R. Wood, said that the completion of the building ushered in a new chapter in the history of the Club.

The deaths of three members, namely Messrs. W. J. White, A. McCallum and P. T. Lambie were referred to, and speaking in particular of the last-named, the Chairman paid a sterling tribute to the memory of one who, a life member and past President, had done much for the Club.

Referring to the departure of Mr. H. T. Cressy from the Colony during the year under review, the Chairman spoke appreciatively of his services to the Club. He asked those present to join with him in a wish for long life, happiness and prosperity for Mr. and Mrs. Cressy.

Reverting to the Building, Sub-Committee, the speaker said thanks were due to them for their work in connexion with the new Pavilion. The great point in the Report, he said, is to be found in the account of the opening of the new Pavilion on December 26, last year's Boxing Day, at which function he regretted he was unable to be present. They were grateful for the presence of Lady Peel, who graciously performed the opening ceremony.

"I am sure you will agree with me," the Chairman continued, "that on experience the building has proved to be the great success which we have hoped of it. As stated in the Report, there are certain things which remain to be done which cannot be done now for want of funds."

Thanks Government. Turning to the Accounts, the speaker expressed gratitude to the Government for the building grant of $10,000, which had nearly halved their difficulties in connexion with the Building funds. The $24,845-06 required in addition to the Grant, had been met by funds from the General Account, assisted by the Building Loan from members amounting to $2,125.

In detailing the manner in which the call for these funds was met, the Chairman remarked that they had expended their last dollar, but could congratulate themselves on having done what they did.

Concluding, he proposed the adoption of the Report and Accounts, which was seconded and carried.

Proposing that the accounts be taken as read Mr. B. E. Maughan said:

The Accounts, together with my report dealing with Finance, has been in your hands for some days. I therefore do not propose to deal with the Accounts item by item but merely review our financial activities and briefly make explanations which I think may be helpful.

The Bar account requires little explanation, but I would mention that the gross profit of $3,491.13 has been made on a turnover of $10,982.94 whereas the gross profit of $4,183.71 was the result of a turnover of $13,603.44; the previous year. I submit that this is most satisfactory and assures us that our interests are being well looked after.

Loss Is Avoided. Of the sum of $143.74 written off as irrecoverable one member was responsible for about $90. This indebtedness was incurred in a very few days and the prompt action of the Finance Committee avoided what might have resulted in a disastrous loss.

Turning to the L. & Exp. account, it will be observed that our subscriptions have increased. This is the result of confirmation by the General Meeting that the subscription for the year 1931-32 be increased, as from 1st October, to $24.00. To dispel any misunderstanding I will quote the relevant paragraph in last year's report.

Your Committee recommend that the Subscription for the year 1931-32 be increased from $22.00 to $24.00, which with the 1930-31 subscription of $22.00, will make a total of $46.00 for the year 1931-32.

The following officers were elected for the season 1932-1933: Chairman, Mr. A. O. Brown; Hon. Treasurer, E. E. Maughan; Hon. Secretary, J. Deakin; Hon. Bar Convenor, Mr. S. Ecclesall; Cricket Representative, R. M. Wood; Tennis Representative, J. S. McGowan; Golf Representative, N. J. Robinson; Hon. Librarian, J. J. Morris; General Representative, A. W. G. Gammie.

The revenue under Entrance Fees does not at first sight correspond with the record of new Membership—the explanation being that prior to October 1st the Fees were $10. The increase to $20 being made at the last General Meeting. The total amount received is therefore reconciled with the number of new Members.

The drop in receipts from Locker Rent may be attributed to the change over to our new Building and I would draw the attention of playing Members to the accommodation for sports gear now provided at $1.00 per annum. There are several lockers available to Members who may require them.

Items of Expenditure may be considered normal, with perhaps the exception of upkeep of Ground which includes the expenditure of $493 on turfing, light and water and is increased and Incidentals Expenses due to increased lighting and sundry expenditure on occupation of the new Pavilion. Presentation of honorarium shows a decrease, in one instance the Honorarium was returned to the Club and other recipients have either put the amount on "Building Loan" or made some other provision to the benefit of the Club.

Although Whist Drives show a slight loss, a pecuniary gain is reflected in the Bar account from the sale of refreshments.

Reserves Strong. The Building Account is to set out to permanently record the total cost of our new Pavilion and I am happy to state that our Reserve Account as at the end of 1931 was mainly covered by Liquid Assets which enabled us with the money subscribed by Members to the Building Loan to meet our obligations.

The Balance Sheet reveals that after incorporating the new Pavilion, Furniture &c. at cost the Reserve Account or Capital of the Club stood at $28,060.68 at the close of the financial year.

It was last night announced that H.M. the King had approved that Mr. Stanley Baldwin, Lord President of the Council, be appointed also to the Lord Privy Seal Office from which Lord Snowden has resigned. Mr. Baldwin will combine both offices but will hold the latter without salary.

Junior Ministerial vacancies have been filled as follows: Financial Secretary to the Treasury, Mr. Hore Belisha (National Liberal), formerly Under-Secretary of the Board of Trade.

Parliamentary Under-Secretary of the Board of Trade, Doctor E. H. Burgin (National Liberal); Parliamentary Under-Secretary to the Colonial Office, Earl of Plymouth (Conservative), who in the last Conservative Administration was Under-Secretary for the Dominions.

Parliamentary Under-Secretary to the Transport Ministry: Colonel Morley Headlam (Conservative), one time Under-Secretary at the Admiralty.

Parliamentary Under-Secretary to the India Office: Mr. R. A. Butler (Conservative), who was born in India thirty years ago, and is a son of Sir Montague Butler, well-known Indian administrator.

National Labour Support. Labour supporters of the National Government in both Houses of Parliament to-day met the Premier at 10 Downing Street, and afterwards issued a statement affirming their unabated confidence in his leadership.

They regret the "Revival of fiscal controversy in a form they regard as altogether out of date," and take the view that "Difficulties of the situation both at home and abroad are so great that a return to the old system of partisan Government and of better party warfare would gravely prejudice national interests and be contrary to the national will."

Their Majesties Return to London. Their Majesties the King and Queen "This evening ended their stay in Scotland. The Royal train by which they were travelling south will reach London this morning. His Majesty will during the day give an audience to the Ministers who have resigned, receiving from them their Seals of Office, and will later hand these to the newly-appointed ministers.—British Wireless Service.

The race on which the Sweepstake was decided was the last event on the card at last Saturday's Race Meeting at Happy Valley. The event was won by Champagne Bay, but later awarded to Wonderful Stag on the decision of the Stewards of the Hong Kong Jockey Club, after an enquiry into the riding tactics of Mr. L. Reidy, jockey of Champagne Bay. The total sum involved in the lottery is approximately $250,000.

There is a possibility that the entire distribution of prize money will thus be altered and holders of winning tickets are anxiously awaiting the outcome of the dispute over first prize money.

GERMAN CLUB FORCE A DRAW.

Y.M.C.A. Second Eleven Miss Chances.

The German Club were decidedly fortunate to hold the Y.M.C.A. second eleven to a draw in their friendly hockey match at King's Park yesterday.

The game was very scrappy throughout, the Y.M.C.A. forwards lacking all sense of combination and being slow when within the circle. Had the "Y" forwards been anything like on form they could not possibly have helped scoring at least five times.

Owen was again prominent in defence and Watts played a steady game at centre-half for the home team. Watts, however, is inclined to feed his left wing too much with the consequence that the right wing is starved. J. M. Wilson, who took J. J. Ferguson's place on the right wing, was very seldom given any opportunities to shine.

For the German Club the goalkeeper and left back were the two best players though Somers, who has represented the Y.M.C.A. first eleven played brilliantly in the closing stages.

G. C. Burnett gave the "Y" the lead after fifteen minutes play as the result of a perfect pass from Wilson, and the "Y" held their advantage until close on the half hour when Miller broke through to score.

On the half hour the German Club were equalized by a goal from Somers, who had been playing very well throughout the match.

The match was a very close one and the German Club were fortunate to hold the Y.M.C.A. to a draw.

MOTHERWELL AND THE RANGERS.

THE big match in to-morrow's Home Football programme is that which takes place at Ibrox Park where the players are entertaining Motherwell, the only undefeated combination in the Scottish League. The champions, though not possessing the ground advantage, are expected to leave Glasgow with at least one point after their dazzling display against Morton on Saturday when they scored seven times without reply.

In the English League Aston Villa are defending an unbeaten record against the Pensioners at Stamford Bridge, and, judging by the indifferent form shown by the London side at the present moment the claret and light blue jerseys should again triumph. Newcastle United, the Cup-holders visited Chelsea on Saturday and carried away both points, but they will have to render a better account of themselves if they are to overcome the visiting Huddersfield side.

In the Southern section of the Third Division Brentford are entertaining Newport, who have secured but one point in eight matches, so that Vivian Gibbins and his colleagues should be assured of yet another victory.

Both Gateshead and Southport are playing away from home, the former being drawn with Tranmere Rovers and the latter with Hull City. Gateshead should win, but Southport will have a stiffer hurdle to surmount.

Twelve Matches To Herald 1932-33 Football Season

The 1932-33 football season will be heralded in with a flourish of trumpets to-morrow afternoon when twelve matches will be down for decision.

The new season, which witnesses the return of the Chinese Clubs, promises to be one of the most interesting within recent years. The Colony will be robbed of the services of the "Argylls" but the Lincolns will step into the breach with an unaltered reputation.

South China, after a year's absence from league engagements will be all out to win the title they last won in the 1930-31 season, and Lee Wei-tung's colleagues should commence the season in an auspicious manner to-morrow when they visit Kowloon. The peninsula side is not so strong this year, Hadley not having returned from leave and several of last year's team having joined the club.

The Police will find St. Joseph's a much improved side with the inclusion of B. Gomez and several other Barcelo players and it will be a very close contest.

On the morning of the opening day, the Police will be playing at home against the Chinese Club, who are expected to be a very strong side.

The following matches are down for decision to-morrow:

Opening This Week-End.

QUALIFYING ROUND FOR CAPTAIN'S CUP.

The winter season of the Kowloon Golf Club opens this week-end when the two best scores (minus handicap) will qualify for the Captain's Cup competition—one card only to be taken out during the week-end by each player.

A qualifying round for the representation of the Club in the Colony's Championship to be played at Fanling on October 30 will also take place on Sunday and those players who wish may put in cards for this as well as the Captain's Cup competition. Another qualifying round for the representation of the Club in the Colony's competition will be held on the morning of Sunday, October 16.

Y.M.C.A. TO COMPETE WITH ARMY

Gala Night Fixed For October 8.

NO DISTANCE OVER 200 YARDS.

The Y.M.C.A. are adopting an ambitious policy with regard to their swimming activities. Tomorrow night they are entertaining the Shamen, Swimming Club, and they will follow this up by competing against the South China Command on the following Saturday. The Army in addition to W. T. Campbell, who has shattered the British Army records for the Quarter Mile and the Half Mile in unofficial trials, possess useful swimmers in Oliver, McPhee, Jamieson, and an excellent diver in Morrison. It is understood that there will be no event on the programme exceeding 200 Yards in distance. This arrangement will in no way aid Campbell, who excels in the longer distances.

The recent marriage of Lt. Musson will handicap the Army as it is understood he will be on his honeymoon during that week-end. He would probably have represented the Army in the 100 Yards and the High Diving.

day, October 16.

In the afternoon the Kowloon Golf Club will hold the Annual Gymkhana and presentation of prizes. Fixture cards and details of Gymkhana events will be sent to members early next week.

ROYAL MARINES WIN THE TRIANGULAR RIFLE SHOOT.

Sgt. Chapelle Highest Scorer.

The Royal Marines again demonstrated their rifle shooting superiority on the Peak Range yesterday when they won the Triangular match against the Royal Army Ordnance Corps and the Royal Army Service Corps. Sgt. Chapelle, with 65, was again the highest scorer.

Scores were as follows:—
Royal Marines 462
Royal Army Ordnance Corps 443
Royal Army Service Corps 409

LIGHT BLUE TUITION.

R. M. N. Tisdall, one of Ireland's heroes at the Olympic Games, was born in Ceylon of Irish parentage, and never resided in Ireland for any length of time. He was educated in England and "finished" at Cambridge, where he received all his tuition as an athlete. This explains why he failed as a boy to make a name for himself in Irish schools athletics, a question which is often discussed.

MIRACLE FINISHED.

Lord Rosebery's three-year-old Miracle is to be sent to the stud forthwith.

After his Eclipse Stakes win and the injury to April the Fifth (the Derby winner), Miracle became favourite for the St. Leger, but he jarred a tendon, and had to be scratched from the "classic."

CANTON AQUATIC TEAM.

Strong Side Visiting Y.M.C.A. To-morrow.

DONN DOUBTFUL STARTER.

Rasmussen May Break Two Bath Records.

There is every possibility of two records for the "Y" bath being broken to-morrow night during the Y.M.C.A.-Shamen encounter. The 50 Yards and 100 Yards should prove the tit-bits of the evening and B. Rasmussen, the Canton captain, is expected to win both events in record time.

The Y.M.C.A. will be considerably handicapped by the exclusion of A. G. Donn, their fastest swimmer. Donn was forced to stand down from the 100 Yards Colony Championship on account of water on the knee, and it is extremely doubtful whether he will be able to take the bath to-morrow evening.

Shamen have introduced three new men into the side which recently defeated the "Y" by 31 points to 28 in Canton. H. Hannaford, F. Read, the brother of Frank Read, the Interport soccer player, and F. Ambrose, who was a member of the Y.M.C.A. inter-members water polo league, are the newcomers, the full team being as follows:—

B. Rasmussen
E. Sterling
S. Schroeter
S. Tremlett
H. Wyle
J. Penfield
H. Hannaford
H. F. Froch
E. Huttemeir
F. Read
F. Ambrose.

It is a strong side and the Y.M.C.A. will be fully extended to win back their flag and thus avenge their narrow defeat in Canton.

The following have been selected to represent the Y.M.C.A.:— 50 Yards:—E. F. Selk and A. G. Donn or W. F. Kerr.

100 Yards:—E. W. Railton and W. T. Campbell.

50 Yards Back Stroke:—E. F. Selk and A. E. Langley.

50 Yards Breast Stroke:—G. Fowler and C. Schreuder.

Long Plunge:—S. H. Garrod and G. Duncan.

Highboard Diving:—E. F. Selk and E. Morrison.

Lowboard Diving:—E. F. Selk and E. Morrison.

Water Polo Team:—H. Angus, J. E. Henry, E. W. Railton, W. F. Kerr, C. Schreuder and G. Fowler.

Relay Team:—E. W. Railton, G. Fowler or A. G. Donn, E. F. Selk, and W. F. Kerr.

Throwing Polo Ball:—W. F. Kerr and F. Webb.

The "Y" have introduced six new men into their side:—Campbell, the well-known Borderers swimmer, Schreuder, Duncan, Morrison, one of the Army's most promising divers, Henry and Webb.

The swimming programme will be followed by dancing in the West Lounge and in order to accommodate the huge crowd expected for the Dining Room will also be opened for dancing. Altogether a most enjoyable evening is in prospect.

SEAWANHA CUP.

America's Challenger, Jill, regained the Seawanhaka Cup for the United States by a third successive victory over the British defender Maids in the international sailing contest on the Clyde. Jill won in brilliant fashion, defeating the British boat by over four minutes.

NORTHERN RUGGER TRANSFER.

Joe Wilson, the Australian international rugby player, has accepted the offer of the Wigan Club for the 1933 season. The transfer is a considerable one, as Wilson is a member of the Australian national team and has played for the Australian national team in the 1932 tour of the British Isles.

SWIMMING CHAMPIONSHIP.

INTERPORTER TO TAKE UP TENNIS

NOT PLAYING UNTIL AFTER FEBRUARY INTERPORT

ST. JOSEPH'S GAIN

"IF LEE LEADS THEM SOUTH CHINA WILL WIN HONOURS."

A. V. GOSANO, THE BRILLIANT PORTUGUESE SOCCER FORWARD WHO GAINED HIS FIRST INTERPORT CAP AT THE AGE OF SEVENTEEN, WILL NOT BE PLAYING FOOTBALL THIS SEASON UNTIL AFTER THE INTERPORT GAME IN FEBRUARY.

GOSANO HAS MADE HIS DECISION ON ACCOUNT OF THE INTERNAL TROUBLES OF THE CLUB DE RECREIO, AND WHEN HE DOES TAKE THE FIELD IT WILL PROBABLY BE IN ST. JOSEPH'S COLOURS.

In an interview with the China Mail yesterday Gosano said that he would spend his time practising for the Colony Tennis championships next February. "My brother 'B' is a brilliant soccer player," he said, and "E. L." is the cricketer member of the family, so that it is up to me to do something in tennis circles."

Gosano is certain that the South China team will carry off the premier League in spite of the strong Borderers challenge. "The Lincolnshire Regiment cannot be so good, as they were beaten by the French Club in Shanghai, and the civilian club had several former Hong Kong players in the side."

The methods of the Football Committee of the Club de Recreio have met with the disapproval of a large number of the playing members of the club, and the resignation of several players has considerably weakened the side. It is the old story of the man-on-the-field's opinion against the decision of the armchair-critic.

In 1925 the powerful South China club suffered a rift in the lute on account of the same reason, but in that case it proved a benefit to the Colony in that the rift brought about the birth of the Chinese Athletic Association, a club destined to carry off the First Division Championship for three successive years—from the 1926-27 season to the 1929-30 season. In the present circumstances, however, the Recreio's loss is St. Joseph's gain.

There is a faint possibility that a suggested plan by the Recreio Committee may meet with success, in which case the players who have already resigned may be induced to return to the fold, but in the meanwhile eight of last year's teams have left the Club.

The Gosano brothers will prove the biggest blow to the Club as they have held the team together for the last six or seven years. Sousa, Xavier, Marques, Victor, Beltrao and McGrann will also be difficult to replace as the Club possesses few experienced reserves to call upon.

A. V. Gosano is naturally disappointed over the turn of events. "I have now played ten seasons for the Recreio, and I should not like to join another Club. If I can help it, but my love for the game may be too great to make the sacrifice. In any case I first played for the St. Joseph's team. That was for half a season before I joined the Recreio," he said.

The popular Portuguese player will be unable to obtain the necessary leave to visit Shanghai with the Interport side, and as a consequence will take tennis seriously in preparation for the 1933 Championships. "I am receiving excellent coaching from the Rumsjohn cousins, and I enjoy any kind of recreation."

The rest may do Gosano good as it will be recalled that he was carried off the field in the closing minutes of the Interport as the result of a collision with Chow, the Shanghai goalkeeper. Ever since then he has had trouble with his knee, and the rest should enable him to become really fit for the concluding stages of the League programme and the important international games.

Gosano thinks that the South China team will carry off the League honours as long as Lee-Wat-kong, their skipper, leads them. The Portuguese star pays high tribute to the tactical scheming of Lee, whom he describes as the best forward in the Orient. "He holds the team together, and without his services the famous South China team would fall to pieces."

Speaking of the Interport Gosano said that he thought only two Chinese players would be selected—Lee-Wat-kong and his partner on the left wing, To Pak-wah, with the possible inclusion of Li Ting-ang, another member of the South China side.

With the season yet to be opened, Gosano predicts that the following team will visit Shanghai:—Clarke, Martley, Strang, Blum, Heller, McEwen, Ho, and others. He also predicts that the team will be victorious in the Interport game.

YANKEES' SECOND WIN.

Cubs Again Out-Classed By 5 To 2 Margin.

NEW YORK TEAM FIRM FAVOURITES.

New York, Yesterday. The New York Yankees advanced yet another stage in their attempt on the baseball supremacy of the world. At the Yankee Stadium yesterday they vanquished the Chicago Cubs by the margin of 5 to 2 to win the second and last game of the World Series encounter to be staged in New York. The remaining three matches will be played in Chicago.

The Yankees are now almost assured of the title last held by the St. Louis Cardinals and their outstanding success clearly shows the disparity, this year, between the National and the American Leagues. The Yankees, with Babe Ruth as the draw, are undoubtedly the team of the year, and are now hot favourites for the title.

Dickey followed up his homer on Wednesday by hitting another four-bagger yesterday. Gomez also lent valuable aid to the Yankees with a magnificent clout in the fifth innings. Hartnett again hit a homer for the Cubs and was well-supported by Wagneke.

Full details were as follows:—
R. H. E.
Yankees 5 10 1
Cubs 2 9 0

Score by Innings:

Yankees 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Cubs 1 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0

On Wednesday the Yankees triumphed over the Cubs by 12 to 6 in the first game of the series.—Reuter's American Service.

POLICE "A" ENTER SEMI-FINAL.

Government House Bowls Defeat.

The Police "A" rink defeated the Government House quartette by 25 shots to 24 in the Inter-Departmental lawn bowls game at Government House yesterday. The rinks were all square on the 21st end.

Scores:—
Govt. House 24
Police "A" 25

The Semi-Final Rounds will be played on the Police R.C. green on Sunday and the Final on the following Sunday.

The semi-final matches will be as follows:—

Sanitary "A" v. Revenue Dept.
(Hong Kong)
P.W.D. "A" v. Police (Eng.)

RECREIO TEAMS.

The following will represent the Recreio against the Chinese Athletic to-morrow:—

ENID WILSON'S POOR PUTTING.

British Hope Eliminated
In Quarter Finals.

ANOTHER CANADIAN CHALLENGE.

Peabody, Mass., To-day.
A sensation was caused here yesterday when Miss Enid Wilson, one of the foremost British lady golfers and one of two survivors of the third round, was beaten in the quarter-finals of the American Championship by Charlotte Glutting of New Jersey.

The British lady's defeat was due to her erratic putting. Miss Wilson is speaking of retiring from competitive golf so that her hopes of winning the British and American titles in the same year will now probably have to be given up. This year she had a splendid opportunity with the elimination of Miss Helen Hicks
in the qualifying round.

Miss Adam-Mackenzie will,
however, be the British representative in the last four and her chances of success are highly rated. Canadians are making a bold bid for American titles.
"Sandy" Somerville having won the American Amateur within the last fortnight.

Full results of the quarter finals were as follow:—

Miss Charlotte Glutting
(U.S.A.) beat Miss Enid Wilson
(Britain) one up.

Miss Adam-Mackenzie (Canada) beat Miss Maureen Orcutt (U.S.A.) 2 and 1.

Miss Collet-Vare (U.S.A.) beat
Miss Peggy Wattles (U.S.A.) 2 and 1.

Miss Virginia Van Wie
(U.S.A.) beat Miss Rosalie
Knapp (U.S.A.) 3 and 2. —

TECHNICAL INSTITUTE FOR CHINESE.

Scheme Approved By Government.

DRIVE FOR FUNDS.

The scheme for the opening of a Technical Institute for the training of poor children in the Colony, advocated by Mr. Lee Yanchuen, J.P., has been approved by the Hong Kong authorities. The old site of the Tai Shing Paper Factory, has been chosen for the building.

When seen by a China Mail reporter yesterday, Mr. Lee said that it was imperative to have a Technical Institute in order to give the uneducated classes a place in life.
The scheme, he added, was suggested last year, and he was glad to say that public response had so far been satisfactory.

Further donations, however,
were necessary. Sir Robert Ho Tung and the late Mr. Fung Ping-shan had each contributed $100,000, while a donation of $50,000 each had been given by Mr. Fu Panyick and the speaker, while a further $24,000 had been obtained during a drive for funds on Wednesday.

BAG - SNATCHER CAUGHT AFTER STERN CHASE

Daring Attempt At Daylight Robbery.

Mrs. Horne, wife of C. Q. M. S.
Horne of the South Wales Borderers was the victim of a daring bag-snatching incident outside the premises of the Dairy Farm Company, in Wyndham Street, shortly after 11 a.m. this morning. The thief, a Chinese boy, was caught by an Indian constable after a stern chase.
Warder C. J. Grover also helped to apprehend the youth.

Seen by a China Mail reporter
shortly after the incident, Mrs.
Horne said she had just left the Dairy Farm together with her little daughter. She was carrying her handbag in her right hand when, without warning, she felt it tugged away.
At first she thought her daughter had taken it, and as she turned to retrieve it, the thief dashed past her and ran down D'Aguilar Street which joins Wyndham Street at that point.

She gave chase and called to an Indian constable, who sprinted for the fugitive. The youth ran down as far as the flower stalls, where he dodged for a while.

Warder Grover heard the commotion and joined in the chase and they cornered the youth in a blind alley.

The handbag which was a leather one, contained only some papers, a handkerchief and a little money.

The name of the thief is Tam Sin, aged 14, believed to be unemployed. The constable who arrested the youth is B.42.

Mrs. Horne resides at No. 10,
"A" Block, Victoria Barracks, Queen's Road.

300 DEAD AND 1,000 INJURED IN EARTHQUAKE.

Further Shocks.

London, Earlier.

Further earthquake shocks are reported from the neighbourhood of Salonika, where the Town Hall and several Government buildings are said to have been damaged, and in the Chakidies region of Greece.
Casualties are now estimated to be about 300 dead.

Throughout yesterday, rescue parties, from British warships which hastened to the scene, have been busily engaged organising relief and helping thousands of refugees. The relief work is continuing.—British Wireless Service.

MARTIAL LAW AT CANTON ON NATIONAL DAY.

A cable was received by the Canton Government yesterday
from General Ho Ying-ching, Commander of the Forces engaged in suppressing the Reds, to the effect that attacks on Hupei, Fukien and Kwangtung are anticipated. A close watch is being kept on all Communist bodies by the Bureau of Public Safety and other official bodies.
A message has also been received in Canton from Minister of Military Forces stating that the Communists have attempted to incite the railway workers. The heads of the Yuet-Han and the Canton-Kowloon Railway have been instructed by General Chan Chai-tong to prevent as far as is possible, the holding of any meetings among their workers.

A three-minute silence will be observed on National Day, in memory of those who died in the Shanghai Conflict and the Wing
Hon Maloo Massacre.

FANLING CLUB RACE MEETING.

Seven Events On Card.

Seven events appear on the card for the Autumn Race Meeting to be held at Fanling on Sunday, October 30. The list includes the Ladies' Mile, and unofficial race.
Another unofficial event will be the Machine Gun Troop Hurdle Race, which promises to attract a large field. The first race takes place at 2.15 p.m.

Bank Spurns $5,000 Demand And Youth Held For Forgery

A case in which a young Chinese had been accused of presenting to the Tin Sheung Bank a forged note demanding the payment of $5,000 to the Ng Wah Bank, was continued further today before Mr. Schofield at the Central Court.

At yesterday's hearing, it was found that the Ng Wah Bank had no knowledge of its being sent.

The defendant stated that he went to the bank in good faith, his brother, who is a foki at the Ng Wah Bank, having sent him. He was told to say that he was from the Bank and he would be handed a sum of money. His arrest grew out of the suspicions of the manager of the Tin Sheung Bank who called the other bank to verify the demand for money.

Mr. Leo D'Almeida, Sr., appeared for the defendant to-day and asked that his client be granted bail. His Worship set bail at $1,000 and adjourned the case until Monday next.
